Acadian History;Acadians Maryland;Acadian Ancestral Home An account of the little-known effort to settle exiled Acadians in Maryland in 1755 and the hardships and injustices these people suffered. Blame can be attached to the British government, but also to the government of Louis XV which "...began with making the Acadians its tools, and ended with making them...the sorry victims of bad advice. [TMP] "FIW: British "light infantry" - ability to skirmish ... I am trying to figure out how adept British regulars were at skirmishing and raiding in the FIW. I know that they were raised and trained to fight the Indians and Quebecois in the forests, but there seems to be some question as to whether they were really much good at it.
